Civic association CEPTA organised a pilot certification ecodriving course for driving school instructors in Hronsek, near Banská Bystrica, from 5th to 7th May 2015. The course was attended by 9 instructors and 6 of them met the conditions for obtaining the certificate. Except for driving school instructors, two delegates of the Ministry of the Interior of the Slovak Republic and one delegate of the Ministry of Transport, Construction and Regional Development of the Slovak Republic participated in the course.
